

Tim in KY GdI Stage 13 is 150 kilometers from San Remo to Cuneo. The first 20 km run south along the coast then the route turns inland and begins gaining altitude toward the first sprint and the day's only categorized climb.

Tim in KY After turning inland there is an elevation gain of 316 meters over the next 10 kilometers. This is followed a slight decline to the first sprint and the start of the Cat 3 climb. Colle di Nava is 10 km at 6.8%. From the KOM line to the finish is 96 km of effectively flat road although there are many little dips and bumps along the way. A sprint of some size is expected.

bikerabe just under 85 km to go 6'40" gap will it increase or decrease?

09:22:15 am

bikerabe EF jersey is ART ! okay?

05-20-2022
09:23:49 am

Katie S the jersey isn't bad. it's the shorts that really make the entire thing painful to see.

05-20-2022
09:24:24 am

Alaska Dave 21 degrees C is about 70 F. Â  $32 + C * 9/5$ . Â Being close to Canada in the arctic I remember that  $-40C = -40F$

05-20-2022
09:26:26 am

Katie S Hey Dave! I hope you don't actually experience that chilly balance very often

05-20-2022
09:31:23 am

Alaska Dave It is currently 5C this morning. I had the construction crew inform me that they needed to move a cherry tree to get to a broken sewer pipe. They did an amazing job keeping the root ball in tact, but I may have lost the secret fertilizer that kept the tree healthy.

05-20-2022
09:31:24 am

Katie S Was the company called Geo. Washington Tree Movers?

05-20-2022
09:31:44 am

Alaska Dave No, I cannot lie.

05-20-2022
09:32:07 am

Katie S We're about to get our streets chewed up ... PG&E, the officially criminal culprit of all manner of fires and gas explosions here in California, is going to be checking and replacing gas lines. There are dotted lines of various spray paint colors on the streets, and I got the flyer the other day that they'll give us 24 hours notice before they crack things open at your house. I think this will last all summer.

05-20-2022
09:34:30 am

SFinAus MvdP getting a calm bike change. Puncture is speculated by commentators.

05-20-2022
09:36:46 am

Alaska Dave Quicker to get a bike exchange than a wheel change with disc breaks, only if budget isn't a factor.

05-20-2022
09:38:31 am

Alaska Dave Almost all our utilities are buried, it created a rainbow effect in our neighborhood before construction began.

05-20-2022
09:39:42 am

SFinAus Greetings grupettobrad and Rob.

05-20-2022
09:41:39 am

Charlie in Tenn I had the underground utilities marked last month. The electric guy had 5 parallel lines about 2 ft apart. He said that he could not determine which ones were live but it would probably be ok to dig close to #2 and #4. Just be careful at about 2 ft down. I decided not to plant anything near there.

Charlie in Tenn Good for them

05-20-2022
09:47:05 am

Charlie in Tenn I think I have all of my morning chores done, except folding laundry. If I move that to an afternoon chore, I am done.

05-20-2022
09:48:15 am

bikerabe new GC leader by 6 secs over stage 1 winner Lotte Kopecky

05-20-2022
09:48:16 am

Katie S i like how you figured that, Charlie. You're done!

05-20-2022
09:48:36 am

Katie S The gap is 4:46" ... that's starting to come down, isn't it?

05-20-2022
09:49:19 am

Tim in KY It appears nothing happened in my absence except a bike change.

05-20-2022
09:50:32 am

SFinAus I had several big shrubs die off from the '21 Big Freeze here.Â This year I had them dug out except one.Â The electric line to the house runs directly under the trunk.Â The guy said it'd be no problem.Â He'd be careful.Â I said no thanks again.

05-20-2022
09:51:00 am

Tim in KY Giro says the temperature is up to 26.Â That's getting close to toasty.

05-20-2022
09:52:10 am

Charlie in Tenn Dang it. I missed a step. I forgot to turn the dryer on. Definitely, moving folding clothes to this afternoon.

05-20-2022
09:52:45 am

Alaska Dave Broken Electric lines and plants are a different situation than broken sewer lines and plants.

05-20-2022
09:53:20 am

Katie S Then there was the time a Bobcat on the loose come rolling down the hill, crashing through our fence and rupturing the gas line. That was a surprise.

05-20-2022
09:57:18 am

Charlie in Tenn I hate when that happens.

05-20-2022
09:58:00 am

Katie S The peloton has a pointy end now. Wind? Or is it QuickStep trying to close the gap.

05-20-2022
10:00:24 am

bikerabe under 44 km to go 4'19" gapÂ break should be caught

Katie S 40.4 and 4.04

05-20-2022
10:03:51 am

Charlie in Tenn Nice. I think they are going to try and close it but it may be close.

05-20-2022
10:04:39 am

Tim in KY Peloton went up the climb slowly to keep the sprinters in play and now they risk not being able to catch the break.

05-20-2022
10:05:28 am

bikerabe World Tour women in Burgos brought a 7 minute break at 33 km to 7 seconds at finish

05-20-2022
10:09:00 am

Charlie in Tenn Now that I have lost Bardet, I need Gaviria, Landa, Bilbao, Porte, and Crapass to go crazy the rest of the Giro.

05-20-2022
10:12:22 am

Charlie in Tenn That is some good chasing but obviously they started to late.

05-20-2022

05-20-2022
10:27:59 am

Mikey or he crashed because I chose him

05-20-2022
10:38:01 am

Katie S I've decided I agree w/ Mikey -- that break is doomed

05-20-2022
10:41:19 am
