

 Mons Soseman Buon Giorno 05-11 08:31

 Mons Soseman Today's Stage is an individual Time Trial in and around Bologna. Start times are late afternoon/early evening in Emilia Romagna, meaning later in the morning in the USA. 05-11 08:32

 Mons Soseman The final kilometre is a steep climb which reaches 16% grade at one point. 05-11 08:36

 Mons Soseman The first rider will start at 16:50 local time (10:50 EDT) and the last rider is expected to finish about 20:00, (2 p.m. EDT) 05-11 08:40

 Mons Soseman Bologna is very famous for its porticos. Portico here means a covered walkway, what used to be called, perhaps, arcades in English, "portici" in Italian. In total, there are over 45 kilometres of arcades, some 38 km in the city center. The longest portico in the world, about 3.5 km, leads from the edge of the city up to Sanctuary of the Madonna di San Luca. 05-11 08:47

 Mons Soseman San Luca is the finish line for today's stage. It towers over the city from the highest point. The Complex includes a church and several chapels, and contains a painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary completed by St. Luke the Apostle. 05-11 08:49

 Mons Soseman Each year, at the Ascension (coming up in a few weeks) there is a solemn procession in which the painting is brought to the Cathedral of Bologna in the city center. 05-11 08:50

 Mons Soseman Pignoletto, Sauvignon, Montuni are three of the local wines for which Bologna is famous. It is a gastronomic center, a university town with world famous cuisine. 05-11 08:57

 Mons Soseman The university is the oldest in the western world, founded in 1088, at the dawn of the high middle ages. 05-11 08:59

 Mons Soseman The trattorie near the university and throughout the town have been known for centuries as centres of buona cucina. 05-11 09:00

	Mons Soseman Tagliatelle are the typical pasta of the region. They are long, flat	05-11 09:05 noodles, which are often served in a circular "nest." Most famous dishes are tagliatelle al ragù bolognese, tortellini, lasagne, deep fried mixed vegetables alla Bolognese, Bolognese cutlets, Rice torta Mons Soseman This is a rare Italian start of Italy's signature race. Don't worry, it was	05-11 09:11 just announced that next year the race will start in Hungary.
	Mons Soseman The first 6 kilometers of today's course flows through the beautiful,	05-11 09:13 classically constructed city, before a turn and entrance into the final two kilometers, the steep uphill section of two kilometers, all along the arcade which leads up to the mountaintop finish.

update on ND.

 Tim in KY I'm sure nothing but basic stabilization has happened and I really don't want to see it in its current state.

05-11 12:58

 Tim in KY Who are the current top three? Even CN is too bored to post it.

05-11 13:04

 Donny Roglic, Nibbles, Lopez I believe

05-11 13:07

 Donny Have to say there seemed like a lot more enthusiasm for the start last year.

05-11 13:09

 Donny Also, having pretty much all the big names go off early had really made this drag

05-11 13:09

along, worse than a normal TT

 SFinAus Agreed. Full current standings at <http://www.giroditalia.it/eng/live/live-stage-05-11>

05-11 13:11

1-2019/

 Tim in KY Viviani is warming up. Huge threat there. Or not.

05-11 13:11

 Tim in KY Thanks, Sean.

05-11 13:14

 Tim in KY L'Equipe has tons of ads. Most are more entertaining than this race.
