

Tim in Ky After two days of lumpy 200+km, the Giro on Sardinia closes out with a 05-06 19:06 mere 148km of pan flat.

Tim in Ky Start time Sunday is 13:45 CET (7:45 EDT). Live video, ST. 05-06 19:15

Donny A lesson in relativity to start our day. “You’ve got make some efforts in the 05-07 06:15 hills, because it’s relatively easy to sit there on the climbs and then do a good time trial. But now he has to do the work on the stage before the time trial and still time trial well.” And in that subtle but significant widening of objectives, Dennis could be looking at beginning the road towards GC contention, some time in the future. Jim Ochowicz Donny This too should be a relatively easy day until the end. Only one 90-degree turn 05-07 06:18 in the final 5 km and only one roundabout in the final 3km. Again no moat, or fire pits.

Tim in Ky Still waiting for the start. This stage is so short and flat that I'm not sure 05-07 07:35

Lotto S and Orica will even let a break go away. If they do, it will be on a very short leash.

BusterSci This could be a horribly dull stage and it could be insanely fun, depending 05-07 07:44 on the weather and how the teams want to deal with a short stage before a rest day this early in the race.

Tim in Ky The weather is perfect. There is a break of four right at Km0 . Two and a 05-07 07:46 half minutes. And I'll bet that's all.

Tim in Ky Breakers are Jan Tratnik (CCC Sprandi Polkowice) Ivan Rovny (Gazprom -05-07 07:48 Rusvelo) Kristian Sbaragli (Dimension Data) Eugert Zhupa (Wilier Triestina).

Tim in Ky Kirby says wind may be a factor. So far not. 05-07 07:48

Donny Heard that today is a tail wind as apposition to the face blast of the previous 2 05-07 07:49 days

Donny Short stage may finish early 05-07 07:50

Tim in Ky The Giro site says the gap is 3:05, TV says 2:10. 05-07 07:53

Tim in Ky CN says 2:38. 05-07 07:53

Tim in Ky Strange. 05-07 07:53

Donny So Tim, what you are saying is that those in charge of minding those that are 05-07 07:55 minding the gap have lost there minds?

Tim in Ky I think they've lost their watches. 05-07 07:56

BusterSci Who watches the watchman? Nobody employed by the Giro organizers, 05-07 07:59 that's for sure.

Tim in Ky Tidbit from CN: Greipel has won a stage in every Grand Tour he has 05-07 08:03 ridden. That goes back to 2008 and 12 Grand Tours. Not even Mark Cavendish has been that consistent.

Tim in Ky Lotto S on point and not exactly flying. 05-07 08:04

Tim in Ky TV and CN now agree that the gap is 3:10 with 122km to go. 05-07 08:08

BusterSci Well, I've got a nice video stream today. The benefit of being at home 05-07 08:16 instead of at a client.

Tim in Ky The break looks to be riding much faster than the peloton but the gap is 05-07 08:18 stable at about 3:00.

Tim in Ky Sbaragli looks to have sat up. 05-07 08:19

BusterSci Dimension trying to get a gap 05-07 08:20

BusterSci Ah. Intermediate sprint points 05-07 08:21

Tim in Ky I think they were going for the remaining sprint points. 05-07 08:22

Tim in Ky The kerfuffle at the sprint point brought the gap down to 2:38. 05-07 08:24

Tim in Ky I'm off to church. Back on Tuesday. 05-07 08:32

BusterSci Aight. I'll take care of the updates, but it looks like it's just me and a couple 05-07 08:33

BusterSci 100km to go, Lotto S pushing the peloton in a not-to-frenetic chase of our 05-07 08:34 break. Nobody is riding easy today, though.

BusterSci 2:50 the gap 05-07 08:35

BusterSci 45.77km/hr is the average speed so far. 05-07 08:37

	BusterSci That's 28.5mph in units God intended.	05-07 08:37
	BusterSci Gap has dropped to 2:22 in 3 km	05-07 08:38
	BusterSci Only 3 in the break right now.	05-07 08:39
	BusterSci Under 2 minutes the gap	05-07 08:43
	BusterSci That was my Yoda impression. "When under 2 minutes the gap you reach..."	05-07 08:43
	BusterSci Hey, Buster, who's your pick for this stage?	05-07 08:45
	BusterSci Well, Buster, Given how he's looked so far, it's hard to bet against Greipel.	05-07 08:45
	BusterSci I understand your point, Buster, but you have to admit, Caleb Ewan has looked pretty fast so far, too.	05-07 08:46
	BusterSci That's true, Buster. I accept the brilliance of that point. But for Postie's late gap on stage one and pulling out of his pedal on stage 2, Ewan may have been in pink with two victories.	05-07 08:47
	BusterSci Excellent analysis, Buster. But we can't forget some of the other fast men, like Gaviria, Bennett and Nizzolo.	05-07 08:48
	BusterSci That's true, Buster. Have you noticed that over the last 20km or so there have been as many spectators on the road as there have been Nuts in the Pub?	05-07 08:50
	BusterSci I have noticed that, Buster. But I'm starting to think the nut in the pub is nuttier than anyone previously suspected.	05-07 08:51
	BusterSci 87.5 to go. 2:03 the gap	05-07 08:52
	BusterSci Coverage here at the NutPub feels very intimate this morning. I feel like I know everyone who's logged in personally.	05-07 08:53

 BusterSci I should set out the tip jar. I could tip myself a penny, then double it each 05-07 08:55 minute and own the entire world by the time the stage is done!

 BusterSci Wow, Buster. Now you're just talking crazy! 05-07 08:55

 BusterSci HEY! Spectators! But still just lurkers in the pub. I'm soooooo lonely. 05-07 08:57

 BusterSci 83.9km to go, gap is down to 1:44. 05-07 08:57

 Rob Hi buster 05-07 08:57

 BusterSci (now my shyness comes out. I'll just sit in the corner and hope these new 05-07 08:58 guys talk to each other...)

 Steve in CO Don't let my presense stop the conversation.... 05-07 08:58

 BusterSci Oh, don't worry. We'll still keep talking to each other. Right, Buster? 05-07 08:59

 Rob Is tomorrow a rest day? How very Italian. 05-07 08:59

 BusterSci You said it Buster. 05-07 08:59

 BusterSci Well, it's a big transfer day. They have to get everyone from Sardinia to 05-07 08:59 Sicily.

 BusterSci The transfer of the caravan has to be done by boat, so it'll take a while. Not 05-07 09:01 quite as easy as crossing over from Messina will be.

 BusterSci Our three break riders are maintaining about 1:50 on the peloton as the pass 05-07 09:02 the 80km mark.

 BusterSci They're working well together. 05-07 09:03

 Gilliemarie Morning all 05-07 09:03

BusterSci Hey, GM.

05-07 09:04

Steve in CO Ciao Gilliemarie!

05-07 09:04

BusterSci Things starting to move a bit on a lazy Sunday morning. I'm guessing a lot of Nuts have followed Tim to church this morning.

05-07 09:04

BusterSci Probably not the same church.

05-07 09:05

BusterSci Hi, Donny.

05-07 09:05

Gilliemarie I would be heading to church but my car was outta commission for a few days & fri nite it was overheating! Gonna wait till my buddy is back in town on monday to drive it!

05-07 09:06

BusterSci Gap is down to 1:35. I don't think it's due to an especially aggressive chase, but rather I think the three guys in the break are just running out of juice.

05-07 09:08

donny I am again being told that I am watching the Giro d'Italia on German Eurosport only to see a bunch of motor dopers ride around a track in Spain.

05-07 09:09

BusterSci Hey, Donny. I might be poking you via email later this summer. I have to audit a client's supplier outside of Stuttgart and Frau and I will just make a vacation out of it. Maybe we can meet up for an afternoon?

05-07 09:11

BusterSci Rob's theme song for today is "Should I stay or should I go."

05-07 09:11

BusterSci Nibbles is carrying water today. What a guy.

05-07 09:12

donny Buster that sounds fantastic! Just hope you are not auditing in July as I will be in Texas for that month, at home on vacation.

05-07 09:14

donny about an hour and a half of racing left at current average speed and two KU's remaining with a gap of 1'46"

05-07 09:15

BusterSci No, not July. I try to keep my European travels to the off season. Although I fear Munich in the early fall is hardly the off season.

05-07 09:15

Tim in Ky Lull. Wifi here isn't fast enough for the video stream.

05-07 09:16

Gilliemarie Oh Donny, will we get to go for coffee again in July?

05-07 09:16

BusterSci Welcome, Katie. Welcome back, Tim. Tim, this was your show, feel free to take it back.

05-07 09:16

Katie Good morning, Buster, Buster, Buster and the others

05-07 09:16

donny Don't see why not Gilliemarie!

05-07 09:16

Tim in Ky This is all I have here.

05-07 09:17

Rob If I swap to another tab I get kicked out

05-07 09:17

donny Are you missing a Buster Katie? seemed like there were more of them for a while.

05-07 09:17

BusterSci We're glad to see you, Katie. Speaking for ourselves, of course. But I'm sure the other half of the Nuts--those not named Buster--are also glad you're here.

05-07 09:17

Tim in Ky Katie, how did your Sardinian dinner go?

05-07 09:18

donny Sardines for dinner? Thought the nuts were all about the Herring, in solidarity with a certain member.

05-07 09:20

BusterSci Delicious herring, if you don't mind.

05-07 09:20

BusterSci Mackerel, sardines, anchovies, smelt and alewives are all acceptable, though.

05-07 09:21

Rob What's happening on the road? I don't have a feed today.

05-07 09:21

BusterSci 65km. 1:37 the gap

05-07 09:21

donny or 64.5 to go same gap

05-07 09:22

BusterSci Donny, what are the winning Lotto numbers?

05-07 09:22

Katie It was terrific, Tim. Marinated baby octopus as as antipasti w salami ... Beets and goat cheese w arugula cuz Mons said so ... and a b,ravioli of swordfish stuffed w provolone, pistachios, pine nuts, bread crumbs and some 05-07 09:22

Katie Other goodies, sautéed until golden, served on a tomato sauce. Delicious

05-07 09:23

05-07 09:25

donny Buster I will let you know soon. Not because of the time advantage, but because for only the 5th time in 40 years I picked the correct horse at the Kentucky Derby. Though, I do admit I had no idea about the horses this year. Just loved the name, Always Dreaming.

05-07 09:25

BusterSci My nickname at work is Always Sleeping. I suppose some of that time is spent dreaming.

05-07 09:27

could start soon.

BusterSci For the first half of the race the Lotto Soudal boys led a mostly stun out 05-07 09:33

peloton. Now all the teams are trying to bunch up in front for fear of what may lay ahead.

BusterSci 45.258 average speed.

05-07 09:39

BusterSci 50km. 2:01. Rob Hatchs says the 10km to go banner just blew off it's pole. 05-07 09:43

BusterSci Pavel Brutt flats but a quick change and he's working his way through the caravan. 05-07 09:44

donny Eugert really putting in the work in the break. Eugert? where is that name from? 05-07 09:45

Katie Eustice and Gertrude's boy

05-07 09:46

BusterSci Dannon? Yoplait?

05-07 09:46

words it thinks fit better even if you have spelled things correctly is a bit beyond the pale BusterSci They're right on the coast, now.

05-07 09:51

Katie Cheeky fellow, Spellcheck.

05-07 09:52

BusterSci This climb coming up is the Capo Boi. That's a bit funny.

05-07 09:52

donny I think they have the A in A.I. down pat. The I. seems a bit lacking

05-07 09:52

Katie Heh heh giggle snort

05-07 09:53

donny Bo-iiii

05-07 09:53

BusterSci 3 riders out front followed by 5 motor and at least 6 cars that I could count.

05-07 09:55

BusterSci Motos. There's spell check again.

05-07 09:55

donny 42.2 and 1'22"

05-07 09:56

BusterSci Donny, we're almost exactly in sync

05-07 09:56

donny I'm giving you the Pirate feed version from the computer as that is the timing

05-07 09:57

the rest of you are watching. I have the German Eurosport on the TV :)

BusterSci So we are in sync! And it's a :PP: feed

05-07 09:58

BusterSci Yarrg, me hearties.

05-07 09:58

donny I will say this for the break, they have only slightly better chance of winning

05-07 09:58

this stage than on of us does.

donny poor guys, I can not win a stage of the Giro sitting on my sofa.

05-07 09:59

BusterSci Actually, they made it up the Cat 4. I wouldn't get atop the Capo Boi.

05-07 09:59

BusterSci Oooh! Switchy!

05-07 10:00

Katie Serpentine, even

05-07 10:01

BusterSci 37km. 1:39 the gap

05-07 10:04

Charles Davis I think even now they have a better chance than us.

05-07 10:06

BusterSci We're down wo 1"13

05-07 10:07

donny Coming up on 1 KU to go and gap getting close to the 1 min mark

05-07 10:07

David Stanley You know you're a NUT when you type Ti into your bar and it autocompletes to tiz-cycling. Good morning, all!

05-07 10:09

Katie G'morning, David

05-07 10:10

donny And here we are gap at 52" with one KU to go

05-07 10:10

David Stanley And we are Kelly'ed!

05-07 10:10

BusterSci The playing around is over. The peloton is going to shut this down quickly and I don't think Lotto S or Orica is going to let anyone go Postl at the end.

05-07 10:11

Charles Davis Zakarin off the backagain

05-07 10:13

BusterSci Kelly is relating some information from Juan Antonio Flecha that the fun

05-07 09:30

could start soon.

BusterSci For the first half of the race the Lotto Soudal boys led a mostly stun out

05-07 09:33

peloton. Now all the teams are trying to bunch up in front for fear of what may lay ahead.

BusterSci 45.258 average speed.

05-07 09:33

Katie That corner sure was a sphincter-locker

05-07 09:34

Katie Hey, im still here!

05-07 09:37

BusterSci Ghosthunters, LUG edition.

05-07 09:37

donny No Katie I am afraid you left.

05-07 09:37

Charles Davis The camera bike kinda got in the way on that corner.

05-07 09:37

Katie Noooooo

05-07 09:37

BusterSci 54.5. 1:45

05-07 09:38

Charles Davis None of my horses finished well yesterday. Kinda like my fantasy team.

05-07 09:38

Katie I'm very good at picking horses that lose

05-07 09:39

BusterSci Noses.

05-07 09:39

BusterSci 50km. 2:01. Rob Hatchs says the 10km to go banner just blew off it's pole.

05-07 09:43

BusterSci Pavel Brutt flats but a quick change and he's working his way through the caravan.

05-07 09:44

donny Eugert really putting in the work in the break. Eugert? where is that name from?

05-07 09:45

Katie Eustice and Gertrude's boy

05-07 09:46

BusterSci Dannon? Yoplait?

05-07 09:46

donny Thanks Katie, I am sure that is it. Those two have such beautiful names they thought lets mix him and its a great name for a boy or a girl.

05-07 09:48

BusterSci We're about 5km from the little cat 4 bump in the road.

05-07 09:50

BusterSci 45km. 1:29

05-07 09:51

donny You know auto correct is bad enough but this new auto correct that also changes words it thinks fit better even if you have spelled things correctly is a bit beyond the pale

05-07 09:51

BusterSci They're right on the coast, now.

05-07 09:51

Katie Cheeky fellow, Spellcheck.

05-07 09:52

BusterSci This climb coming up is the Capo Boi. That's a bit funny.

05-07 09:52

donny I think they have the A in A.I. down pat. The I. seems a bit lacking

05-07 09:52

Katie Heh heh giggle snort

05-07 09:53

donny Bo-iiii

05-07 09:53

BusterSci 3 riders out front followed by 5 motor and at least 6 cars that I could count.

Charles Davis Zakarin off the backagain

05-07 10:13

David Stanley The breakaway is riding strongly, but there is a) not enough time on their side and b) a couple of sprinters' teams that want this back gruppo compatto

05-07 10:13

Katie Buongiorno, Mons

05-07 10:13

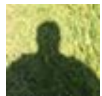

Mons Soseman Hey Everyone

05-07 10:13

Gilliemarie Hi Mons

05-07 10:14

Mons Soseman Sundays.... Love them, but here I am just arriving!

05-07 10:14

David Stanley G'day, Mons!

05-07 10:14

Charles Davis Everything has slowed down. Maybe not a catch as soon as David thought.

05-07 10:14

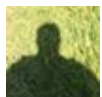

Katie You missed the KU ceremony, but not much else ... at least on the road. The repartee here has been brilliant

05-07 10:15

Mons Soseman I had semi researched another essay, but if I try to punch it up for publication within this Kelly Unit, I probably would not finish.

05-07 10:15

Mons Soseman I will have to read back over the banter. :)

05-07 10:15

Charles Davis My dinner last night was in honor of Greipel. Beer Brats and sauerkraut and non traditional sweet potatoes.

05-07 10:16

donny Afternoon Mons, you shall enjoy the musings of Buster, Buster, Buster and Buster. Fascinating conversation.

05-07 10:17

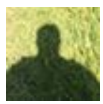

David Stanley That is a darn fine meal, Donny.

05-07 10:17

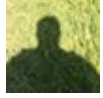

BusterSci Wait a minute! Donny, you were eating penguins?

05-07 10:17

Mons Soseman So, AS Roma Calcio player Kevin Strootman has been given a two 05-07 10:18 game penalty for pretending to be injured during a recent game. This is the first such penalty handed out in all of Association Football, apparently, and a great outcry has arisen. It reminded me of the difference between Soccer and Cycling:

Mons Soseman //rumbletalk-images-

05-07 10:18

upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1494167021-Pretends.jpg

David Stanley Interesting to hear Kelly talk about flat tires. As (I believe) Paul Matlin 05-07 10:19 pointed out the other day, random also means clumps of actions. Sean should have been there for that discussion.

Mons Soseman Apparently Strootman, who is generally respected, not only writhed 05-07 10:19 on the ground in pretended agony, he also insisted strongly that the refs give a penalty to the "injurer."

David Stanley Mons, was that the incident where a player got flicked on the ear, and 05-07 10:20 subsequently rolled about on the ground?

BusterSci Maybe he was Ferengi?

05-07 10:21

Charles Davis Did anyone read anything about why Posty got to the front at the 1 km 05-07 10:21 flag yesterday? I think they misread the finish.

BusterSci 17 seconds

05-07 10:21

BusterSci Charles, I think you means Friday? What I heard is the sprinters were just 05-07 10:22 playing a bit of watchy-waity.

David Stanley I think a small gap 10-15 seconds, with 25 km to go, is easier on the 05-07 10:23 chasing teams than gruppo compatto. Keep them close for the next 20 km is easier than dealing with all the attacks that'll come if all are together for the last 25 km.

BusterSci I will spare you all the Lampre fat man.

05-07 10:23

David Stanley No matter. Gruppo compatto w/26 km to go.

05-07 10:23

Charles Davis No I mean yesterday. He was in the bunch with a leadout man and 05-07 10:26 moved to the front at the 1 km banner. He was in Greipel's wheel moments before. It just seemed that he jumped trying to keep the jersey.

Katie Mons, wanted to say that the priest who read mass at yesterday's service was 05-07 10:26 wonderful. Gentle and thoughtful. A youngish Nigerian man, his speaking and prayers were mellifluous.

donny That should help make up for the lack of 90-degree turns, moats, fire pits and 05-07 10:26 what not in the finish. Gruppo compatto give a much better chance that they all fall down. Yikes

David Stanley Donny, don't forget the rodents of unusual size 05-07 10:27

BusterSci ROUSes? 05-07 10:27

BusterSci Another flat! 05-07 10:28

BusterSci I think we have a saboteur. 05-07 10:28

donny Ah seems that someone has put something on the road to help supply the chaos. 05-07 10:28

David Stanley Morabito flats. Maybe just a poorly sealed and chipped road surface? 05-07 10:28

Steve in CO A team car can only carry so many spare wheels....I wonder if they ever 05-07 10:29 run out on a day with this many flats?

David Stanley Remember 2012's TdF? Carpet tacks on the climb? Several teams ran 05-07 10:30 out of wheels.

BusterSci 21km 05-07 10:31

Charles Davis Kirby thinks that the flats could be due to the road edges. Riders trying 05-07 10:31 to move up on the outside.

BusterSci Another flat 05-07 10:31

BusterSci Nope. Chain 05-07 10:32

donny Something causing flats, high cross winds, all together at high speed. Mons, you05-07 10:32 may have finished your Sunday work but these guys could use some prayers, me thinks.

Steve in CO Guess that is the downside to making road edges with nails, tacks, and 05-07 10:32 glass.

Katie Guy in Fubo says thorns from the shrubbery 05-07 10:33

BusterSci Sky, Quickstep, Bahrain and Sunweb up front. 05-07 10:33

David Stanley fellows, it's tough but try and ride on the tarmac. Lots of pushing and 05-07 10:33 shoving.

David Stanley weather Underground reports winds NNW at 28 MPH, gusting to 40 05-07 10:35

MPH. That's why guys are getting blown off the road.

Katie Weenies 05-07 10:35

BusterSci DiData up front as well. 05-07 10:36

BusterSci FDJ no leading 05-07 10:36

BusterSci It's just a seething mass of teams trying to get to the front. I don't think it's 05-07 10:37 wind, I think it's everyone wanting to be in the same spot on the road.

David Stanley This is the classic "if you're not moving up, you're going to the back" 05-07 10:39

donny For guys that ride bicycles, they don't seem to have the best grasp of physics. 05-07 10:39

BusterSci I think the UCI should have a regulation prohibiting Cannondale and CCC 05-07 10:39 riders from riding next to each other. GAAHH, my eyes!

Charles Davis It is just a mass of swirling bikes. 05-07 10:40

BusterSci Argy bargy between a Cannondale and somebody. Shoulders flying. 05-07 10:40

Katie A technicolor baitball

05-07 10:40

David Stanley BTW- has anyone used Alpecin shampoo?

05-07 10:40

donny I think with the movement like this we can stop calling it a peloton and call it a murder.

05-07 10:41

donny Though the birds seem never to hit each other.

05-07 10:41

BusterSci Penguins preen, they don't shampoo.

05-07 10:41

BusterSci Plus I'm bald as a lightbulb

05-07 10:42

donny Nope I drink my caffeine thank you very much.

05-07 10:42

David Stanley Nibali. 55 kph at 105 rpm. That needs a 53x13.

05-07 10:42

Steve in CO David, I beleive that is Peter Sagan's secret to luxurious hair

05-07 10:42

David Stanley I like to support sponsors. And I have a less than luxurious mane of white hair.

05-07 10:43

donny 11.9 to go and they are hammering along

05-07 10:44

BusterSci If I used Alpecin on my hair my back would never sleep.

05-07 10:44

donny as well as being blown from side to side

05-07 10:44

BusterSci A split in the peloton.

05-07 10:45

BusterSci Main guys are in contact but those at the back appear caught out.

05-07 10:45

donny around the roundabout with no problems

05-07 10:45

David Stanley FYI - 32 mph is a force 7. Also known as a moderate gale. Breezy, 05-07 10:45 what?

BusterSci This is QuickStep territory 05-07 10:45

David Stanley Quickstep takes it to the gutter. Classic Belgian tactics. It'll split. 05-07 10:46

BusterSci The rubber has snapped. 05-07 10:46

BusterSci Jungels driving it with QS behind him. 05-07 10:46

donny gaps all over the place 05-07 10:46

BusterSci Greipel made the cut 05-07 10:46

Katie Ick 05-07 10:46

donny around they go again all safe 05-07 10:47

BusterSci Thomas trying to get across. 05-07 10:47

Mons Soseman Oh my goodness... everything is breaking up... 05-07 10:47

David Stanley Guys are flying out the back of the break with 9 km to go. 05-07 10:47

BusterSci Greipel almost dropped and then tries to power back. 05-07 10:47

David Stanley Iljo Keisse, perhaps the best 6 day rider in the world the last ten years, 05-07 10:48 tears this apart.

donny the front group now has about 8" on the next group 05-07 10:48

Mons Soseman Is QuickSteph going for the team competition today? My oh my... A 05-07 10:48 way to recover from Boonen's retirement...

donny followed by another group and then the big group

05-07 10:48

Mons Soseman Was it the wind that so effectively broke them up? ... and we say there is no excitement on a flat stage...

05-07 10:49

donny They are extending that lead over the pink jersey

05-07 10:49

BusterSci Wind

05-07 10:49

BusterSci Quickstep and wind. Peanut butter and jelly.

05-07 10:50

Charles Davis This is fun.

05-07 10:50

David Stanley truly, BusterSci. They know wind and gutters in the Belgian north

05-07 10:50

Mons Soseman That Wind has got to be strong, the head of the Peloton has such a

05-07 10:50

pronounced diagonal

donny If this holds Jungels in that front group could pick up a 20 sec advantage on the rest of the GC guys

05-07 10:50

BusterSci Yeah. Gaviria will win and Jungels in pink.

05-07 10:51

Mons Soseman I think you mean French Fries and Mayonaisse with regard to 05-07 10:51

QuickStep and wind, n'est ce pas?

donny at 5 km to go we are looking at a 30" gap!

05-07 10:51

BusterSci 27 seconds now for the leaders

05-07 10:51

David Stanley can the break get to turdy-tree seconds out?

05-07 10:52

BusterSci Donny no longer commenting off the pirate feed.

05-07 10:52

donny shoot sorry.

05-07 10:52

BusterSci No worries, dude.

05-07 10:52

Mons Soseman Was that a world champion jersey I just saw? or just an odd team

05-07 10:53

Jersey. I think Donny and me need our own pub for the ends of races.

BusterSci Maglia Rosa group is closing the gap

05-07 10:53

David Stanley What is truly telling is what we can't see. The time gaps towards the read with the main GC contenders are not being seen on TV. Could be some massive gaps back there.

05-07 10:53

BusterSci There was the Italian Champion jersey. I know you THINK that's the world,05-07 10:53

Mons.

Charles Davis That is Nizzolo

05-07 10:54

donny oddly I am in no way wanting this break to win.

05-07 10:54

BusterSci QS rider is spent and pulls off.

05-07 10:54

Mons Soseman must be that... . Who wears the Vatican Champion jersey is what I want to know.

05-07 10:54

BusterSci I'm guessing that's a pretty repetitive circuit race if they hold it on home territory.

05-07 10:55

donny I don't know Mons, but I don't think they give a jersey for that. Maybe a funny hat?

05-07 10:55

Mons Soseman After that crash in the first stage (or was that yesterday) which 05-07 10:55

abnormally delayed most of the peloton, I am not upset with a large break group reconstituting things

BusterSci 15s

05-07 10:55

David Stanley 2,500 meters to go and only 15 seconds in hand. It could regroup on the line.

05-07 10:55

BusterSci Another QS pulls off.

05-07 10:55

Mons Soseman Alas, maybe I could start a master competition.

05-07 10:55

BusterSci Jungels driving it

05-07 10:55

donny Where is my bo-ii Mcewan?

05-07 10:55

donny opps ewan

05-07 10:56

Katie My goodness, this has turned into a bike race.

05-07 10:56

BusterSci In the SBS booth

05-07 10:56

BusterSci Jungels broke the readout!

05-07 10:56

donny we covered where that other little sprinter is

05-07 10:56

BusterSci Leadout.

05-07 10:56

BusterSci It's from this group. Nizzolo or Gaviria

05-07 10:56

David Stanley The kite. The prayer.

05-07 10:57

BusterSci Jungels driving.

05-07 10:57

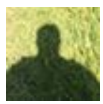

Mons Soseman Wow

05-07 10:57

BusterSci \Haasx goes

05-07 10:57

Mons Soseman what a finish

05-07 10:58

BusterSci Gaviria comes around

05-07 10:58

BusterSci Gaviria!

05-07 10:58

donny Gavirea!

05-07 10:58

BusterSci My guy!

05-07 10:58

donny bumper

05-07 10:58

Mons Soseman First he hugs his papa, then his teammates...

05-07 10:58

Katie Zounds

05-07 10:59

Steve in CO a Columbian sprinter? who would have thought?

05-07 10:59

BusterSci That was a beauty finish, whether you wanted the break to stay or not.

05-07 10:59

Classic wind tactics

David Stanley That was a darned fine finish. Covered the last km in 1:06. That's quick. Good for Jungels. Need to see those time gaps for the GC riders too. Great finish for the DColombian.

05-07 10:59

Charles Davis Quick step done good

05-07 10:59

donny Good job on those guys for taking advantage of the opportunity the wind provided. No one does it better.

05-07 10:59

Mons Soseman Are there still riders on the course?

05-07 10:59

Katie Thanks, gang. I'm off... the back. See you Tuesday

05-07 10:59

	BusterSci Gaviria in pink	05-07 10:59
	Charles Davis probably	05-07 10:59
	BusterSci YEs, Mons	05-07 10:59

	BusterSci But not too far back.	05-07 11:00
	David Stanley Keisse makes the race for QS. Awesome work for the team.	05-07 11:00
	BusterSci Here comes a bunch	05-07 11:00
	Charles Davis Caleb Ewan is cursed.	05-07 11:00
	Mons Soseman well, hasta la vista, amici	05-07 11:00
	Gilliemarie Thanks guys! See you on Tuesday	05-07 11:00
	David Stanley Quintana 23 seconds back of Jungels. Not too much of a gap for my GC guy. Time to do the grocery shopping. Ciao, ya'll!!	05-07 11:01
	donny Until Tuesday folks. At least they all kept what was left of the rubber on the road.	05-07 11:01
	Charles Davis Thanks all. Seeyou Tuesday.	05-07 11:02
	BusterSci I'll hang on to post top 10s.	05-07 11:02
	Marc @Toad Hall Thanks, folks. My feed froze at 7km. Stage 4 looks like a doozy, but I must be elsewhere.	05-07 11:03

Mons Soseman It was great, Gaviria gave an interview in Italian, but completely in 05-07 11:06

Spanish with a peppering of words here and there in Italian, like "maglia rosa." It wasn't even Spanglish. It was great!

Mons Soseman Not Spanglish, but the Italian Spanish version is Itagnolo. 05-07 11:07

BusterSci Tah, all. 05-07 11:10
