Tim in KY The route has two early uncategorized lumps followed by 73 kilometers of false flat to the start of two Cat 1 climbs in Andorra. The first climb is 17 km at 7.7% with two segments in double digits. The finish climb is 8 km at 7.7% with many segments in double digits.

Tim in KY Kilometer zero is scheduled for 13:27 CEST. Finish is imagined either side of 17:30. Forecast is for dry at the start with temps in the low-20s. As the route moves north the temps fall into the low teens and rain is likely. Again.

01:22:10 pm

Rocket City Gal Slapped my forehead when I realized it's a grand tour which means --- NUTPub gatherings! I'll try to join in some tomorrow, if the "heat dome" hasn't killed me by then.

02:58:08 pm

Rocket City Gal Oscar Onley became the second DNF casualty of the Vuelta on stage 2; he slid out in the rainy / wet conditions and broke his right collarbone. (De Plus' injury on the Stage 1 TTT was confirmed to be a non-displaced hip fracture.) A lot of guys have crashed in the last couple of days. The first red jersey wearer Milesi also crashed on stage 2, and finished well behind the peloton. Hopefully he is OK.

08-28-2023
09:17:20 am

RocketCityGal Stage predictions for today, anyone?

08-28-2023
09:17:44 am

RocketCityGal I don't think the win will come from this group, but there's an unusually deep pool of talent this year and there are lots of contenders for stage wins. Karmna would love a Vuelta stage win, because it would put him in the select group of riders that has won a stage in each of the grand tours.

08-28-2023
09:20:20 am

RocketCityGal Fraile can also join that club with a Vuelta stage win.

08-28-2023
09:21:50 am

Charlie in Tenn This break has very little chance of winning. I have some doubt that they will be ahead at the top of the first big climb.

08-28-2023
09:23:31 am

Katie S They'd have a better chance if the peloton slows to look at all this gorgeous scenery, though...

08-28-2023
09:25:32 am

RocketCityGal I think the main GC teams are going to start pouring it on pretty soon. JV knows the only way to get enough time on Remco is to get stage wins /bonus seconds. Mas will probably lose time in the TT but they will need to keep an eye on him as well. Everyone's hyped up about Ayuso but he only has something like 20 race days in his legs for the year. Almeida always seems to follow the front group and then fade at the end, without animating things on his own much.

08-28-2023
09:29:07 am

RocketCityGal And it's the Vuelta, anything can happen. Some young gun on a lesser team could end up surprising us all!

RocketCityGal Rob, so maybe Wheatiesbox is an Irish Belgian?

BusterSci Someone new at a craft thinks their stuff is better than it is. Those approaching mastery focus overly on their flaws. Those who do it for a living realize they're the only ones who notice the flaws, so ship it.

08-28-2023
10:35:13 am

SFinAus Looks like wizardry to me RCG

08-28-2023
10:35:30 am

BusterSci And to be clear, RCG, that was a compliment. You're clearly very good and driven to get better all the time. And we get to see it happen during these races.

08-28-2023
10:37:17 am

Alaska Dave Good morning RCG, without looking at the commentary, I first thought someone was showing off an epic barbecue failure.

08-28-2023
10:38:27 am

BusterSci I'm still in the early stages of that mastery.

08-28-2023
10:39:06 am

BusterSci But I've become highly salt, smoke and nitrate sensitive so I do less and less of it.

08-28-2023
10:40:26 am

Alaska Dave Speaking of mastery CVV and Bobke think the climb hasn't started yet.

 RocketCityGal This is a new tie for me. It involves a protractor and folding along certain lines. Second one was a lot quicker and easier and I'm hopeful that it will look a little better than the first one. The green on the first one wasn't nice and bright because I rushed it. So I just refolded that part and put some more green dye on. Fortunately, there a whole lot of tutorials for tie dye and I was able to find a shamrock one. I don't think I could've come up with this one on my own. 08-28-2023
