

 Tim in Ky Vuelta stage 10 is 165 kilometers through the interior of southern Spain 08-28 11:49
beginning at Caravaca de la Cruz. The route heads south for the first 51 km and then turns northeast to a figure loop, crossing the finish line twice. The first time is the intermediate sprint. The finish is at the headquarters of El Pozo Foods, a producer of hams and cured sausages that is a major sponsor of La Vuelta.

 Tim in Ky The route descends gradually for the first 75 km and then is flat for about 5008-28 11:57
km. With 35 km to go the day's two climbs begin. First is a Cat 3 of 5.7 km that averages 5.7%. Then, without and descent the final climb, a Cat 1, begins. It is 7.7 km and averages 6.5%. The final 21 km is a fast descent to the finish.

 Tim in Ky Only 8 roundabouts have been stuffed into the final 5 km, but three of them 08-28 12:00 come after the red kite. There are also two 90 degree turns in the penultimate kilometer.

 Tim in Ky Kilometer zero is scheduled for 13:20 CET (07:20 EDT). Finish is expected 08-28 12:05 between the usual 17:30 and 18:00 CET. Live video is scheduled for 15:00 CET (09:00 EDT).

 Charles Davis Thanks Tim. 08-28 12:16

 memb54 Thank you, Tim. Looks like it'll be interesting tomorrow. 08-28 15:11

 Tim in Ky The rain in Spain is mainly on the race today. And it has cooled off 08-29 06:15 considerably.

 RSoseman It does look terribly rainy there. 08-29 06:21

 Tim in Ky In the neutral zone race radio reports light rain. Forecast is for heavy rain at 08-29 07:11 the finish. That would make the final descent a treat.

 Tim in Ky Raining on you Trish? 08-29 07:20

 Trish in MA It is currently a light rain here in Calp, which is destroying our plans for a08-29 07:21 beach walk for our final day.

 Tim in Ky Once again today there are not enough KOM points on offer to take the 08-29 07:22 spots from Vilella.

 BusterSci This looks like a stage and a day for walking the dog early and being back 08-29 07:22 for the finale. It's 56F and mostly sunny here in the neutral zone of the day's walk. Today's route is a dead flat walk on a converted railroad track, out 3 miles and back the same. I predict the dog will finish 16 feet ahead of me, because that's the length of her Flexi-lead.

 Tim in Ky We have fog and 60 degrees. We had a nice steady rain all yesterday 08-29 07:23 morning.

 Tim in Ky No word of a proper start yet. 08-29 07:24

 Trish in MA I've loaded a Dropbox folder with some pictures and 2 videos from 08-29 07:24
Sunday's race. The video of the peloton going by doesn't appear to be working - at least on my husband's computer. Here's the link. I'll try to fix the technical problems.
<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/m0960h3ckrfukkw/AABEvw5US2AP2aXVcJZZGnqCa?dl=0>

 Tim in Ky Today should be a day for the break, but twice already, Sky has let a GC 08-29 07:25 danger man into the break and had to chase it down.

 RSoseman //rumbletalk-images- 08-29 07:28
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1504006389-Horses%20of%20wine.png

 Tim in Ky Both videos work for me, Trish. And you yot a picture of the El Pozo van! 08-29 07:28

 RSoseman Horses of Wine. Did you see that Joanna? 08-29 07:28

 Tim in Ky Racing and attacks have started. 08-29 07:31

 Trish in MA Yeah, my husband has a PC computer, so it runs a little slow. They work for him, now. 08-29 07:31

 BusterSci I will open the gates of Casa Buster for any horses carrying wine. 08-29 07:34

 Trish in MA It would appear that we came to Spain just between the festival seasons. 08-29 07:37

Every town, no matter what size, has at least one, which is prominently featured at their local tourist office. They also have a Moors y Christianos festival and recreation of some battle or other. Calp's in in October and features Moorish pirate boats landing on the beach, rock-throwing fisherman, a march up the Main street by the Moors, a villain who is going to betray the town, and a miraculous cross of fire that allows a single boy to shut the town gates and save the town and convert the villain. All over the Old Town are signs for the various groups that play these roles.

 BusterSci Looks like attacks trying but not staying away after 4km 08-29 07:38

 Tim in Ky Race radio got nuthin'. 08-29 07:39

 Tim in Ky Sounds kitschy as all get out, Trish. 08-29 07:40

 Tim in Ky After 10 km, still no break. Only news is that Chaves punctured. 08-29 07:43

 Trish in MA It looks rather cool. The costumes are amazing, esp. the Moorish pirates. 08-29 07:44

And all this took place in 1744, when the biggest fear was being kidnapped and held for ransom. Given that Calp had a population of 300 people, the chances that the king would pay a ransom for a bunch of fisherman was pretty low.

 BusterSci Twitter has some shots of pouring rain on the final summit. Even if the rain is over by the time they get there the roads won't be dry, especially in shaded areas 08-29 07:45

 Tim in Ky No news of any rest day abandons of of any DNS today. 08-29 07:45

 Tim in Ky Oddly, La Vuelta.com sys the weather at the final summit is "sunny". 08-29 07:46

 Tim in Ky Well they just changed it to "big storm". 08-29 07:46

 Trish in MA We're going out to try to do something, braving the rain. Should be back in time for the finish. I hope something happens on the road, and that TJ doesn't have his usual post-race 08-29 07:47 day meltdown.

 Tim in Ky Now Roche punctures. I blame Sky. 08-29 07:47

 BusterSci If I were kidnapped I think my only hope would be to play the Ransom of Red Chief card. 08-29 07:47

 Tim in Ky If Nibbles punctures next, we'll know somethings up. 08-29 07:50

 Tim in Ky They've done 20 km already and no break. 08-29 07:54

 BusterSci Laura Meseguer posts this from near the route 08-29 07:54

 BusterSci //rumbletalk-images-upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1504007984-Screen%20Shot%202017-08-29%20at%206.54.09%20AM.png 08-29 07:54

 BusterSci It ain't Houston, but I wouldn't want to ride in it. 08-29 07:55

 Tim in Ky Wet. 08-29 07:55

 Tim in Ky Jungle Bob tries a solo. Bad idea. 08-29 07:58

 Tim in Ky Didn't work anyway. 08-29 08:01

 Tim in Ky Nothing to see here. 08-29 08:12

 memb54 Good morning, All. We're in for a heat wave of mid 30oC in Winter. It's not a good presage for Summer. 08-29 08:23

 Tim in Ky We're having a chilly summer, so go figure. 08-29 08:24

 memb54 Very interesting composition, Father. I must admit I didn't know about Caravaca de la Cruz . 08-29 08:25

 memb54 Thanks Trish for the link. Will look at it this evening. 08-29 08:26

 Tim in Ky Well, we've had a successful attack os 20 riders. OTB. 08-29 08:28

 Tim in Ky Still no break. 08-29 08:28

 Tim in Ky All back together again. They are already on the northeasterly leg of the route. 08-29 08:35

 SFinAusTx Thanks WOTS. Who let those bikes sneak into those car parades? I shot a video of the support cars during the Worlds too. You can tell people there a lot of cars, but it's still amazing to watch a full procession. 08-29 08:42

 Tim in Ky Two riders have a small gap. We'll see if it sticks. 08-29 08:43

 Tim in Ky Up to 7 riders now but it's only 0:10. 08-29 08:44

 Tim in Ky No joy. 08-29 08:46

 Tim in Ky Now Daniel Oss (BMC) and Lasse Norman Hansen (Aqua Blue Sport) have 0:14. 08-29 08:53

 Tim in Ky But no. 08-29 08:56

 Tim in Ky With 82 km to go the gap is 0:00. 08-29 08:57

 Tim in Ky Sunny on the peloton right now but still raining in the mountains. 08-29 08:58

 Tim in Ky Video is streaming. 08-29 09:01

 Tim in Ky There is a big group up the road and the peloton has eased off so we may finally have a break with 70 km to go. 08-29 09:11

-  Tim in Ky Os and Trentin are in the front group. 08-29 09:11
-  Tim in Ky Gap is already up to 2:00. 08-29 09:13
-  Katie Lane Good morning! Back home now -- and able to do LUGNuts chat on home PC instead of iPhone, where there's often an echo (echo) and my screen randomly scrolls the posts rapidly for no apparent reason. This is much better! 08-29 09:14
-  Tim in Ky 65 km to go, gap is 3:00. 08-29 09:15
-  Tim in Ky Still waiting for ID. 08-29 09:16
-  Tim in Ky 18 breakers are: Julien Bernard (Trek-Segafredo), Tim Declercq, Matteo Trentin (Quick-Step Floors), Alessandro De Marchi (BMC), Daniel Moreno, Jose Joaquin Rojas (Movistar), Nico Denz, Alexandre Geniez (AG2R-La Mondiale), Michael Morkov (Katusha-Alpecin), Bert-Jan Lindeman, Juanjo Lobato (LottoNL-Jumbo), Luis Leon Sanchez (Astana), Valerio Agnoli, Domen Novak (Bahrain-Merida), Arnaud Courteille (FDJ), Jacques Janse Van Rensburg (Dimension Data), Rafael Reis, Diego Rubio (Caja Rural-Seguros RGA) 08-29 09:19
-  SFinAusTx Interesting - Rojas, Trentin, and LuLe. Seems like deja vu all over again. LuLe must be really keen to put all that criticism behind him. 08-29 09:20
-  Tim in Ky Rojas is best placed in the break at +13:30. 08-29 09:21
-  Tim in Ky Coming up on the irrelevant sprint the gap is 4:26. 08-29 09:23
-  Tim in Ky Peloton in the feed zone. 08-29 09:24
-  Tim in Ky Lots of puddles on the road. 08-29 09:24
-  bikerabe Intermediate sorint not irrelevant for green jersey Trentin who's in break 08-29 09:26
-  Mons Soseman Where are the World's this year? 08-29 09:27
-  Tim in Ky Norway, I think. 08-29 09:27

Interesting that this weekend is Eid al-Adha for our Islamic brethren, wherein the good you do is returned to one ten-fold. (I do like working at an Islamic school.)

 SFinAusTx LuLe was in the break on stage 6 and considered the best to take the win. 08-29 10:01
The gap was coming down fast so he decided to sit up and take his chances with a bunch sprint. Almost as soon as he sat up the break started extending their lead and they stayed away. Some said he squandered a stage win. Others wonder if it he was already at his limit and just couldn't stay.

 Tim in Ky Rensburg (DDD) has attacked the break. 08-29 10:03
