

Tim in KY VaE Stage 12 is the second longest of this year's Vuelta at 193 kilometers. The route runs from Salobreña to a summit finish at Peñas Blancas. The first 84 km are along the southern coast. It then turns inland for 64 km and returns to the coast for the intermediate sprint and the climb to the finish.

RCG The problem with vending tie dye at flea markets /rummage sales is that folks want flea market /rummage sale prices. And my pricing is already lower than most dyers at a comparable skill level. Especially since the cost of everything has gone up. The best venues for tie dye are big music festivals. There are a lot of those out west. So dyers in California can charge twice what I do at festivals and basically sell out and make a living at it if they do enough festivals (and enough dyeing). I'm happy to have a low-level hobby that pays a couple of the bills.
