

BusterSci Welcome to Stage 3 of the 2019 Giro that goes from Vinci south to Orbetello. 13-May-2019 06:36:41

BusterSci As I understand these things, Vinci has Italian food and Orbetello has slightly different Italian food. 13-May-2019 06:39:19

BusterSci Probably more fish in Orbetello. So I'm good with it. 13-May-2019 06:40:22

BusterSci They go through Colle di Val d'Elsa today. Frau and I stayed in a neat B&B up inside the old castle walls there on our first trip to Italy. It was quite neat, and very quiet at night. We drove to Rome after that on some of the same roads they'll be riding today. 13-May-2019 06:43:44

BusterSci Hatsuyama (Nippo-Vini Fantini) has a couple minutes over the peloton. He's trying to get a good head start so he doesn't get cut like his teammate/countryman did on Saturday. 13-May-2019 06:47:46

BusterSci I've seen no news of any non-starters. Everyone who crashed yesterday finished, but I have no idea how overnight developments may have affected those unfortunates. 13-May-2019 06:49:52

BusterSci Not very happening here today. I'm hoping someone can take over about 9:30 CDT because I have an appointment at 10 on the north side of town. It was the only event I couldn't push off until the afternoon this week. 13-May-2019 06:52:20

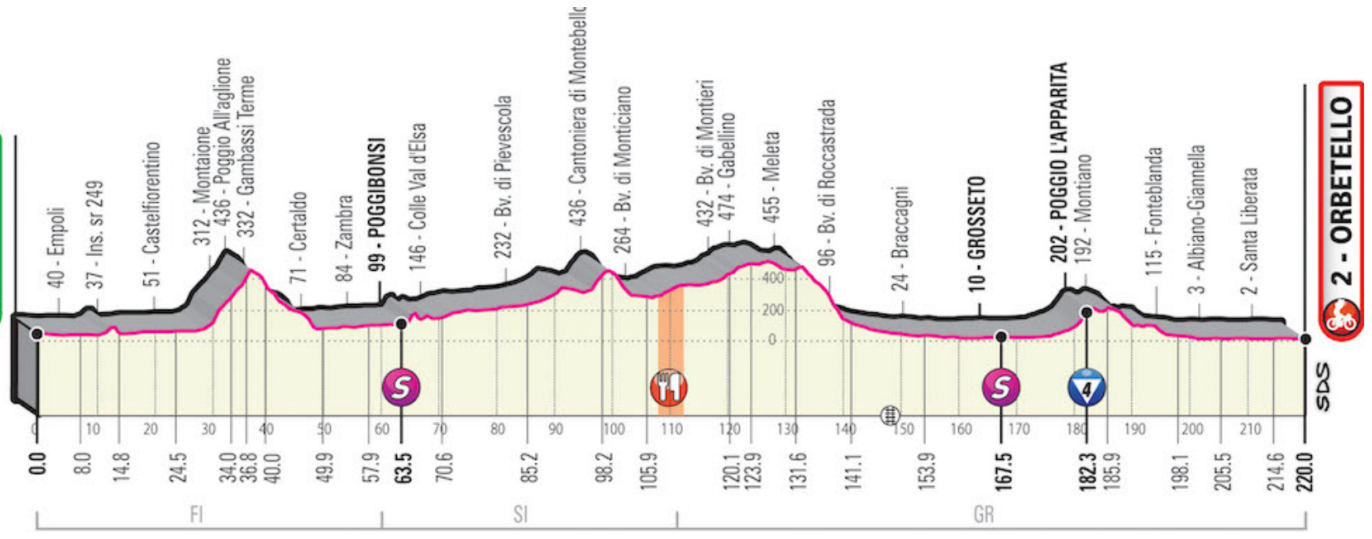

BusterSci Not that anyone cares, but tomorrow I spend the afternoon in a tiny tube as I get an MRI to figure out what's wrong with my shoulders. Doctors assure me that I could not have caught bad shoulder disease over the internet from the owner of a chat site, but I'm not buying it. 13-May-2019 06:54:33

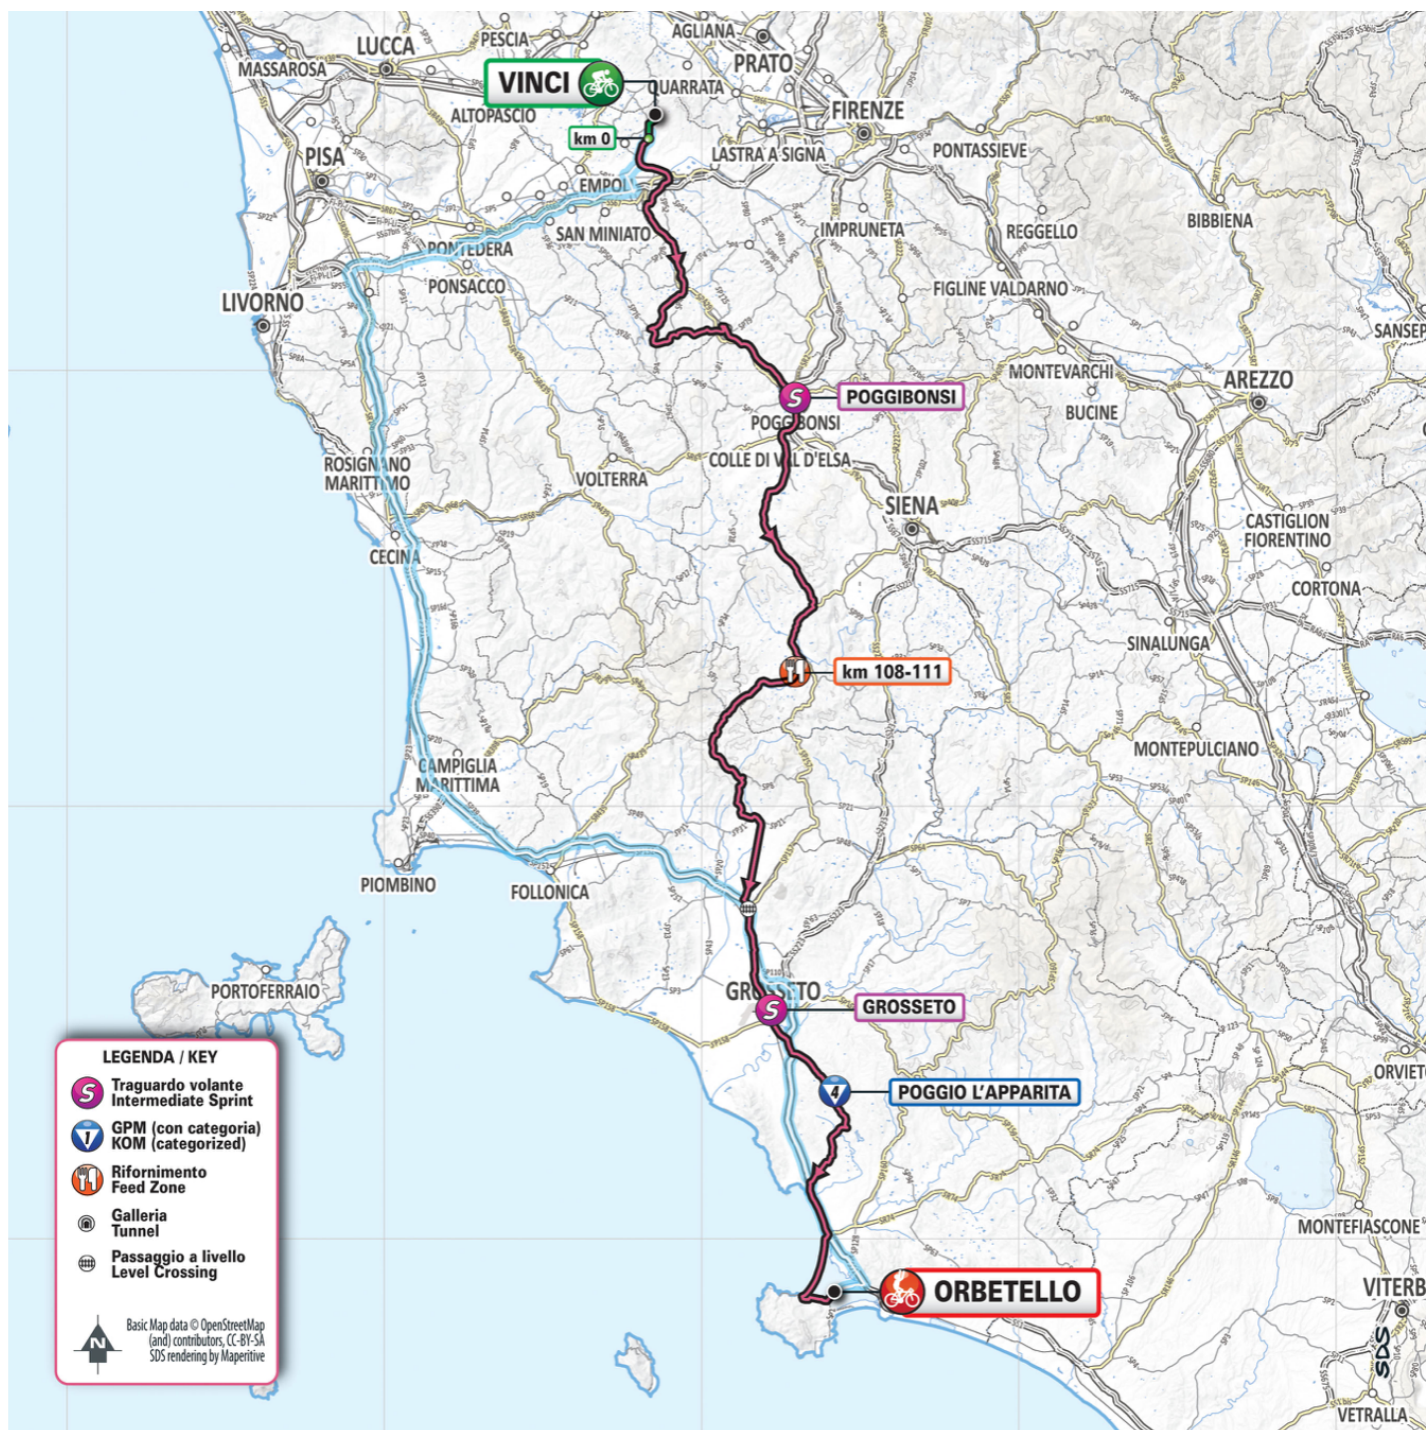

BusterSci Coverage begins at 6:05 CDT, which is about 10 minutes. I'll be stepping away from meaningless prattle now to make breakfast for Frau. If 13-May-2019 06:55:43

32 - VINCI

you pop in and wonder why nothing is happening, I've got two words for you.

BusterSci Sprint stage.

13-May-2019
06:55:47

BusterSci 4 minutes now. I guess Flo coverage doesn't start with all the other coverage.

13-May-2019
07:24:48

BusterSci Flo coverage starts at 10:50? Seriously? Complaint letter time.

13-May-2019
07:25:07

BusterSci Ok, somebody at Flo figured it out.

13-May-2019
07:33:52

BusterSci The camera in front of the peloton needs it's image stabilization fixed. I'm going to puke.

13-May-2019
07:39:20

BusterSci Somebody heard my SOS!

13-May-2019
07:42:11

BusterSci Hi, Charles.

13-May-2019
07:42:18

Charles Davis Morning Buster, I am really here

13-May-2019
07:42:21

BusterSci This is shaping up to be a painfully dull stage.

13-May-2019
07:43:15

Charles Davis I am puttering around for a few more minutes but will hang with you the rest of the day.

13-May-2019
07:43:44

BusterSci So you can take over when I leave in three hours?

13-May-2019
07:44:11

BusterSci Hello lurkers. Feel free to log in.

13-May-2019
07:46:41

BusterSci There's a big tail wind today, which may be the only thing to keep this stage from finishing tomorrow.

13-May-2019
07:47:34

BusterSci Hi, Rob

13-May-2019
07:50:25

Rob Hi Buster

13-May-2019
07:50:35

BusterSci Tell me something interesting.

13-May-2019
07:50:45

Rob Um, I got octoprint set up on my 3d printer, if you are into anything like that.

13-May-2019
07:52:08

Charles Davis What do you 3d print

13-May-2019
07:52:32

BusterSci I'm not, so tell me about it. What is octoprint?

13-May-2019
07:52:32

BusterSci Oh. 3D. I read "3rd printer."

13-May-2019
07:53:00

BusterSci I was thinking if you have 3 printers you're WAY more into whatever it is than I am.

13-May-2019
07:53:19

Rob Not much at the moment, but it will be things like cases for raspberry pi's and geeky stuff like that

13-May-2019
07:53:33

BusterSci I'm interested. What printer do you have?

13-May-2019
07:53:46

Rob Anet A8

13-May-2019
07:53:56

Rob Entry level, build yourself type

13-May-2019
07:54:13

BusterSci And what do you use your razzleberry pi's for?

13-May-2019
07:54:20

BusterSci Hi, Trish!

13-May-2019
07:54:36

Charles Davis Wow it is getting crowded

13-May-2019
07:55:03

Rob Loads of stuff, made a retro games consol, running otoprint, network hard drive storage, wirless printer server....

13-May-2019
07:55:26

Trish in MA Hi Buster. I will not be able to relieve your boredom for long, since I leave for work in about 15 minutes. Yes, some of us still do that.

13-May-2019
07:55:27

BusterSci The very fiber of my existence rebels having to put an apostrophe in a plural word, but "raspberry pis" sounds like something you should see a urologist about.

13-May-2019
07:56:04

Charles Davis True luggers have been known to comment from work. Just saying...n

13-May-2019
07:56:20

Trish in MA Oh, I will, but only after I get through a conference call, then chatting with folks, watering my plants, etc. You know, work.

13-May-2019
07:57:15

BusterSci 4:38 at 155.7km

13-May-2019
07:57:16

BusterSci Hope somebody brought donuts for you.

13-May-2019
07:57:35

Charles Davis I hear that the bunch is really riding slow so the one guy out front can stay out there.

13-May-2019
07:58:19

Trish in MA Donuts, ick. I'm having leftover waffles.

13-May-2019
07:58:40

BusterSci They ramped it up as Demare wants intermediate sprint points.

13-May-2019
07:59:03

BusterSci Leader on a lump heading into Colle di Val d'Elsa.

13-May-2019
07:59:30

Charles Davis Those waffles sounded good.

13-May-2019
07:59:46

Charles Davis Joanna's boy won a race yesterday.

13-May-2019
08:00:31

BusterSci Oh I'm not sure. Maybe they did sound good, maybe they didn't.

13-May-2019
08:00:42

BusterSci (just waffling)

13-May-2019
08:00:48

Rob Sagan? were is he racing?

13-May-2019

BusterSci Cali

13-May-2019
08:01:29

Rob Oh didnt catch any of that, I was probably asleep

13-May-2019
08:02:18

BusterSci If you hadn't been, the race would have done it for you.

13-May-2019
08:02:33

Charles Davis His 17th win at TOC. I think this is the 14th edition so he has done pretty good there.

13-May-2019
08:02:45

Trish in MA Good for Sagan. I forgot to watch that one. I was evaluating clean tech business plan contest applications. Some good one, luckily no perpetual motion machines.

13-May-2019
08:02:56

BusterSci zero point energy?

13-May-2019
08:03:27

BusterSci cold fusion?

13-May-2019
08:03:36

BusterSci Extraction from time crystals?

13-May-2019
08:05:15

Trish in MA I especially like the ones where you expend more energy to generate the clean energy you get out. You cannot change the laws of physics!

13-May-2019
08:05:34

BusterSci That's called tokamak fusion. It's only 30 years away, and always will be.

13-May-2019
08:07:20

BusterSci Trish, that last sentence needed to be written with a Scottish accent.

13-May-2019
08:07:55

Trish in MA I suspect today's race is expending more energy than the

13-May-2019
08:08:37

Charles Davis Along a similar line, I see that electric car batteries cause the crs to actually put more pollution on the earth than a diesel car.

Charles Davis Reading and commenting on stuff from Buster's monologue.

13-May-2019
08:13:46

Trish in MA And now, I must leave for work. I'll leave you all with this small bit of "art" news. Friends of mine over the weekend saw a performance of "Spock's Brain - The Musical" - a full re-enactment of the episode complete with uniforms, the devices, the "givers of pain and delight", etc., etc.

13-May-2019
08:13:55

Charles Davis Sounds exciting.

13-May-2019
08:14:28

BusterSci Brain and brain! What is brain?

13-May-2019
08:14:50

Charles Davis Sorry about your shoulder. I think you did get it from Jo.

13-May-2019
08:15:11

BusterSci Second only to "No blah blah blah!" in the pantheon of great Trek lines.

13-May-2019
08:15:18

Charles Davis I will be here at 9:30 so we are covered, somewhat.

13-May-2019
08:16:02

BusterSci On the car batteries, I have some dispute with that. I don't know the lifecycle costs of Lithium cells, but with NiMH batteries the question is more about the kind of pollution. If you think greenhouses gasses are more damaging the industrial waste, then it's likely a good tradeoff. Also, I question some of the assumptions in those studies, which have popped up with regularity for decades.

13-May-2019
08:17:56

BusterSci It also depends upon the source of your electricity. If recharge comes from wind, solar or nukes, batteries win out. If the power comes from gas, it's a wash. Coal is a clear loss.

13-May-2019
08:18:46

Charles Davis This study was more about the industrial waste from mining and refining the materials for the batteries but I agree with your points.

13-May-2019
08:20:52

Charles Davis Donny, are you here?

13-May-2019
08:22:35

Charles Davis and Tim and some lurkers

13-May-2019
08:23:02

Tim in KY I was catching up.

13-May-2019
08:23:36

Tim in KY Still no ToC scores on VG.

13-May-2019
08:23:57

Charles Davis Everyone should have plenty of time for catching up today.

13-May-2019
08:24:12

BusterSci Another issue with the electric vs gas question is the unintended consequences of rich world NIMBY environmentalism. We don't want the mining necessary done in our neck of the woods, so instead of it happening under the controls of the developed world the necessary materials get mined in the developing world and under dictatorships where nobody cares about the environmental impact.

13-May-2019
08:25:43

Charles Davis I did not do well at TOC. Today's stage should be a good one. They go up the first 2/3 and then up and down and up for the finish.

13-May-2019
08:25:52

Tim in KY We went out to Fondation Louis Vuitton today. We went out to look at it when it first opened, but you can't get inside unless there's a special exhibit. Right now there are two.

13-May-2019
08:26:07

Charles Davis Very good point Buster.

13-May-2019
08:26:27

Tim in KY The inside of the FLV is like every other art museum you've ever been in. The only interesting architecture is the outside.

13-May-2019
08:27:51

Donny Well, I am all caught up. Hello all

13-May-2019
08:28:40

BusterSci Ser Donny.

13-May-2019
08:29:03

Charles Davis I went to a Hands On Museum in Gray, Tn over the weekend. It was fun for the kids but I would trade with you Tim.

13-May-2019
08:29:25

Charles Davis Hello

13-May-2019
08:29:41

Tim in KY You in Paris, Donny?

13-May-2019
08:29:42

Donny I for one am excited about this stage as it passes through Montiano, or as I call it Paradise. It is our Italian vacation home. The food and wine is excellent

13-May-2019
08:29:46

Charles Davis You should write an essay...

13-May-2019
08:30:16

BusterSci My favorite hands on museum is the Exploratorium in SF. Best of the bunch I've seen.

13-May-2019
08:30:34

Donny No, Tim. Not in Italy either. They moved some dates on me, such is my life.

13-May-2019
08:30:34

Charles Davis or post photos

13-May-2019
08:30:35

BusterSci Donny, is it some different Montiano? The one I know is more on the Adriatic side.

13-May-2019
08:31:58

Tim in KY The break is just one nipping wine fan?!

13-May-2019

Charles Davis yep

13-May-2019
08:32:23

BusterSci Pretty much

13-May-2019
08:32:24

Donny Montiano is a tiny walled village at the top of a hill. It has a grand total of 2 restaurants both excellent and one bar the only place you can have internet as even the cell service is sketchy.

08:33:08

Charles Davis On eurosport they were talking about how the riders could actually have more saddle sores today because they are riding so slowly.

13-May-2019
08:33:41

Donny Magliano which is passes next is a bit more robust in size and the castle is larger. It has the entire old part of town covered in places to eat drink and shop.

13-May-2019
08:33:45

Donny Ill post a few pictures, if I can.

13-May-2019

08:35:58

Charles Davis Caleb looked good yesterday but Ackermann was by far the best of the day.

13-May-2019
08:36:12

BusterSci I think Caleb got stuck behind his readout man, and Viviani was on the wrong wheel. Ackermann played it perfectly. 13-May-2019 08:37:05

13-May-2019
08:50:57

BusterSci Need to check my glasses prescription. For a second I was wondering if Pooh and Piglet were at the finish line. Then realized it wasn't Christopher Robin doing comms.

09:05:02

SFinAus This is an oversimplification, but in my thinking it seems like the real racing won't start until until stage 13. Then it'll be crazy until the end.

13-May-2019
09:05:08

Tim in KY It's 15:05 here.

13-May-2019
09:05:46

Charles Davis Accurate, unless something weird happens.

13-May-2019
09:05:47

BusterSci Unless crosswinds or weather create excitement on a day when someone (DQS) wants to race.

13-May-2019
09:05:56

SFinAus Well, those are the things that keep us coming back. ;)

13-May-2019
09:06:48

Charles Davis Yeah crosswinds would make an interesting day. There are winds today aren't there?

13-May-2019
09:06:56

BusterSci Tim's new catchline, paraphrasing Chevy Chase, is "I'm in Paris, and you're not."

13-May-2019
09:07:05

BusterSci Almost exclusively tailwinds today.

13-May-2019
09:07:20

Joanna in New York Hey Gang! Sorry about the archive repeats. I thought I had that resolved, it depends on where I download the data from. I will see if I can resolve it today. I just don't have the available time to go into the file and review each and every comment for duplication. Sorry...

13-May-2019
09:07:59

Charles Davis That is a good thing if there were headwinds we might have to take a nap.

13-May-2019
09:08:21

Joanna in New York And Donny, up ways, down ways, sideways or other ways - your photos are lovely. :-)

13-May-2019
09:08:38

Charles Davis No problem Joanna. It is a nice feature to have as it is.

13-May-2019
09:09:01

Tim in KY Holy sh*t. They are currently 30 slower than the slowest imaginable time!

13-May-2019
09:09:01

Rob I think they really need to think about doing shorter faster stages.

13-May-2019
09:09:07

Charles Davis Buster link did not work

13-May-2019
09:10:21

BusterSci Too bad. It was Curly snoring.

13-May-2019
09:10:39

Joanna in New York ATOC Fantasy League postings are always going to be a day behind, still waiting on them.

13-May-2019
09:10:42

Tim in KY It's the baby's fault.

13-May-2019
09:11:43

Charles Davis I believe I might have seen curly snore a few thousand times.

13-May-2019
09:11:56

BusterSci And the fact that the stage finishes around midnight where George is.

13-May-2019
09:12:34

Joanna in New York Just starting to read from the top, very sorry about your shoulders Buster - you have my knowing sympathies. It wasn't me, I swear...

13-May-2019
09:12:36

BusterSci Someone has this stage figured out

13-May-2019

13-May-2019
09:13:08

Donny I have had nothing to do with your shoulders Buster but you have my sympathies.

13-May-2019
09:13:40

BusterSci It's the heavy load I carry.

13-May-2019
09:13:57

BusterSci Bushels of BS.

13-May-2019
09:14:08

Tim in KY Feedzone. Because they've been burning calories like crazy.

13-May-2019
09:14:27

Tim in KY Finally some excitement! Ads!

13-May-2019
09:14:59

BusterSci They'll get done eating and then all line up at the espresso bar.

13-May-2019
09:15:02

Donny My wife makes these wonderful printed "memory books" for us every year. I have never been very good about taking photo's and when your married to someone that does it so well, you become even lazier about it. So I don't actually have many images on my devices not purely work related.

13-May-2019
09:16:05

Donny Can't say I blame them for taking there time through here, it is lovely riding a bike along these roads

13-May-2019
09:16:43

BusterSci 10 years ago, for my parent's 50th, my brothers and I took them to Provence for a week and then a few days in Paris. Instead of taking pictures, my dad would just buy a postcard of each thing he wanted a photo of. He said they were always better pictures than he could take.

13-May-2019
09:18:18

Joanna in New York I just caught up. Buster, the "Cannons" comment had me laughing so hard that I am crying. Very witty Wilde, very witty...

13-May-2019
09:21:37

BusterSci It was one of Shaw's

13-May-2019
09:21:53

Joanna in New York No it wasn't.

13-May-2019
09:22:34

BusterSci 4:51 at 102.1km to go

13-May-2019
09:25:29

Charles Davis OK, I have had some leftover cheesecake, the last bit of my daughter's smoothie, started laundry, and have one basket from yesterday to fold. I am ready for an exciting Giro stage.

13-May-2019
09:28:57

BusterSci I'm guessing you have about a week and a half of chores before that happens.

13-May-2019
09:29:25

Joanna in New York So Charles...do your children look at your Fantasy Team names? :P

13-May-2019
09:30:18

Charles Davis No, the names are just for y'all. Little sister is on a moratorium from screen time this morning. It is driving my crazy. Luckily, I am the boss and let her off for something close to average behavior.

13-May-2019
09:36:31

BusterSci I was just off reading up on who died on GoT last night. I haven't been watching any of it, being a "books first" sort of guy. But I have a theory who will sit the throne when it's over and I like seeing his rivals killed off.

13-May-2019
09:38:02

Charles Davis No spoilers

13-May-2019
09:38:25

Tim in KY Just under 3 KU to go. 4:26. Lotto and Jumbo at the front.

13-May-2019
09:38:32

Charles Davis Oh nevermind I will never watch that anyway.

13-May-2019
09:38:49

Tim in KY True for me, too soon, Charlie.

13-May-2019
09:39:25

Charles Davis Ackermann just helped bring his main helper, Selig, back to the bunch. Good teamwork.

13-May-2019
09:42:23

BusterSci I wonder if they are as bored as we are?

13-May-2019
09:42:54

Charles Davis Buster, you may make it back from your task before we finish.

13-May-2019
09:48:12

BusterSci I'm thinking the same. I'll check in before I leave the appointment and probably watch the finale in the car (in the parking lot, in case you thought I was a dangerous idiot.)

13-May-2019
09:49:09

Charles Davis This finish should be a true mess. All of these fresh legs will want to be up front. I see carnage ahead.

13-May-2019
09:49:17

BusterSci Errrrmm....behind the wheel, that is.

13-May-2019
09:49:19

Donny Beautiful view

13-May-2019
09:51:09

BusterSci 2:20 the gap

13-May-2019
09:55:52

BusterSci 81.5km

13-May-2019
09:55:59

Charles Davis Trek is forcing the action

13-May-2019
09:56:06

Charles Davis On a downhill. There is some idea that there are crosswinds at the bottom so they may be trying to blow the race apart.

13-May-2019
09:57:05

Tim in KY Only 13 minutes slow now.

13-May-2019
09:59:28

BusterSci If they took the direct route it would be the Tour of California.

13-May-2019
09:59:57

Donny hehehe

13-May-2019
10:00:13

BusterSci The road they're on would be one of 4 lanes in Cali.

13-May-2019
10:01:00

Charles Davis That led to nothing. Sosa from Ineos gets a bike change, maybe.

13-May-2019
10:01:17

BusterSci Great GT for the Ineos equipment partners.

13-May-2019
10:04:20

Donny Fat man was asleep as the break was caught

13-May-2019
10:04:48

SFinAus Adorable and beautiful, Jo. Oh, to be young and frisky too.

13-May-2019
10:05:25

Tim in KY 0:54 with 75 km?! That's insane.

13-May-2019
10:06:17

Tim in KY Maybe Nippy just wore out.

13-May-2019

13-May-2019
10:07:47

BusterSci No. The peloton decided to catch and start riding.

13-May-2019
10:08:07

Donny Thats what I was suspecting Jo. Less celebration than attempted re-soiling

13-May-2019
10:08:29

Tim in KY There will be attacks, then.

13-May-2019
10:08:46

SFinAus Threw you some stink eye too.

13-May-2019
10:08:47

Joanna in New York Threw my friend "stink eye". She could barely contain her laughter as she was taking these videos. It is hysterical.

13-May-2019
10:09:18

Tim in KY What's the red flag for?

13-May-2019
10:09:52

BusterSci Red flag?

13-May-2019
10:11:22

Charles Davis On the moto?

13-May-2019
10:12:19

Tim in KY Moto referee, yes.

13-May-2019
10:12:58

Charles Davis None of my announcers mentioned it

13-May-2019
10:13:17

Tim in KY Okay, then.

13-May-2019
10:13:46

Charles Davis Slight change of direction, gaps starting to form out the back.

13-May-2019
10:13:56

BusterSci No babble on Twitter that I see.

13-May-2019
10:14:15

BusterSci This is a bunch of teams trying to keep DQS off the front with crosswinds ahead.

13-May-2019
10:15:58

Tim in KY Ads.

13-May-2019
10:16:17

Tim in KY NYT says Doris Day died. She was 97.

13-May-2019
10:17:11

BusterSci that she did. And was.

13-May-2019
10:17:36

Charles Davis She was a good one.

13-May-2019
10:18:29

BusterSci From the activities happening in the peloton right now, they should be playing "Whole lotta shakin' goin' on>"

13-May-2019
10:19:22

Charles Davis Intermediate sprint coming up somewhere soon.

13-May-2019
10:19:51

Charles Davis Demare will be trying. I think the sprint is in 8 kms

13-May-2019
10:21:52

BusterSci Rumor has it Viviani will be leaving after stage 12. Demare must think he's got a good chance to "Sagan" up some points in non-sprint stages.

13-May-2019
10:22:55

BusterSci That's some pretty wind in grass

13-May-2019
10:23:42

Charles Davis I think lots of sprinters will leave. I am hoping Ackermann decides to stay.

13-May-2019
10:23:59

BusterSci I'm banking on Ewan doing the same.

13-May-2019
10:24:13

Charles Davis Cross tail wind for sure.

13-May-2019
10:24:13

BusterSci Aight, gang. I'm off to see a banker.

13-May-2019
10:24:42

Tim in KY Back to 20 minutes slow.

13-May-2019
10:24:49

13-May-2019
10:25:40

Charles Davis 2.5 kms to sprint

13-May-2019
10:28:46

Charles Davis bonus seconds on offer as well

13-May-2019
10:29:05

Joanna in New York Yeah, Tim. I keep checking. I will have to leave soon, and I'm sure VG will publish. I will put it up later today.

13-May-2019
10:32:14

Tim in KY My stream says 4km to sprint.

13-May-2019
10:33:13

Charles Davis OK, the sprint was odd. Demare road away from the pack. no one challenged. All the other sprinters seems to get lost on the way to the sprint.

13-May-2019
10:34:55

Donny They had a wonderfully typically Giro lead in to the sprint. A nice right turn immediately followed by a left both with medians in the way for them to try to navigate or bunny hop. Nice

13-May-2019
10:36:32

Tim in KY I'm a Km behind.

13-May-2019
10:37:19

Charles Davis Probably looked just as odd for you.

10:43:45

Trish in MA What's a Tao-ist bike change?

13-May-2019
10:45:22

Donny Nice Trish, I have a feeling it is a less Zen version?

13-May-2019
10:46:59

Donny Tommy D. is back in the bunch after being off the back for an unknown reason.

13-May-2019
10:50:03

Tim in KY Unmentionable reason, probably.

13-May-2019
10:50:38

Charles Davis I have been distracted, anything happen?

13-May-2019
10:51:09

Trish in MA According to my extremely short (one website) research: The tao of the bike is: 1. Don't concentrate on the meaning of "bike". 2. Understand what a "bike" is. 3. Simply accept the bike. The nature of the bike is eery changing and is always the same. Just accept it.

13-May-2019
10:51:30

Charles Davis Climb points ahead. The trek guy has the blue jersey and probably wants to get more.

13-May-2019

13-May-2019
10:54:53

BusterSci Waiting in a hot bank lobby.

13-May-2019
10:55:14

SFinAus The KOM wasn't uncontested so much as nobody concentrated on the meaning of it.

13-May-2019
10:56:06

Charles Davis Ciccone at 24 KOM points. Next best is 6 points. The big points will come after stage 12 so Ciccone could build up a lot of points on these smaller climbs.

13-May-2019

13-May-2019
11:06:27

Donny It was not just a flat. What it was I do not know.

13-May-2019
11:06:47

Charles Davis Tao and most of Ineos were caught in the crash. Knees and Sivakov got by. That may make it easier for Tao to go for stages.

Charles Davis Viviana has been demoted. Probably will be appealed but I think he will get put to the bottom of the group. Gaveria gets the win.

Charles Davis Moschetti (young Italian) was very diplomatic that his opinion doesn't matter. He was happy to be in the final.
